Reflections on the Vintages

2022

The Tale of Two Harvests

With climate variability as the new normal, Napa Valley grape growers aim to be resilient and adaptable. Their preparation and experience paid off in 2022 as growers faced triple digit heat over five days in September quickly followed by rain that brought harvest to a sudden halt. Winemakers are calling the vintage "the tale of two harvests," making it one of the more unique vintages in recent history.

The white wine harvest kicked off in early August, followed quickly by red wine varieties. The typical gap between the white and red wine harvest was almost nonexistent, and the frenzied tempo continued until the rains provided winemakers a much needed break. Following the rain, grapes left to hang through October enjoyed mild weather days that allowed winemakers to wait for perfect ripeness.

Winemakers describe 2022 white wines as having perfect acidity and freshness with remarkable flavors and textures, and red wines as excellent structured with deep red colors, luxurious tannins and exquisite fruit-forward aromatics. Winemakers believe the unique weather events that defined the vintage will showcase the full range of flavors that Napa Valley wines are so well known for from crisp and vibrant to dense and powerful.

The joy is back

The 2021 vintage will be remembered for low yields with intensely flavored, small-sized berries and a smooth and uneventful harvest season. We started off with very little rain, leading to the second year of drought conditions in Napa Valley. Harvest began early with white wine grapes picked on July 30 and red wine grapes beginning on August 31. While concerning in the long term, the drought resulted in a more natural load on the vines, requiring less pruning and dropping of fruit. The resulting grapes are packed full of flavor. Our winemakers are excited about 2021 as yet another amazing vintage from Napa Valley.

One of the most challenging vintages in our history

The 2020 Napa Valley harvest was one of the most challenging in our history. All wineries worked under extensive COVID pandemic safety protocols. A warm, dry winter with rain and cold toward March's end was followed by a mild spring. After summer's cool mornings and warm days, the build-up to harvest was interrupted by two wildfires: the LNU Complex Fire (began August 17) and the Glass Fire (began September 27). Thankfully, the white grape harvest started in early August, and the wines are showing excellent development in cellars. While the red grape harvest was smaller than usual, most wineries were able to move forward with red wine vinification. Our winemakers remain not only optimistic, but also committed to bottling wines of the highest quality.

Vintage Perspectives

Optimal Ripening Brings in "Epic" Fruit

"Early, even and excellent" are three words being used to describe this year's growing season and the Napa Valley wine grapes that have come from it, reflecting the consistent quality for which this world famous wine region is known.

A warm, dry spring brought early bud break, helped with canopy vigor and berry size and created ideal conditions for flowering and fruit set under sunny skies. With the exception of one heat spike in late June/early July, temperatures were consistently in the zone for optimal vine activity, resulting in notably healthy vines as fruit went through veraison and started ripening.

A Classic Vintage for Napa Valley from Start to Finish

"Classic" and "perfect" are just two accolades being bestowed upon the 2012 Napa Valley growing season and harvest. Textbook conditions saw near-ideal spring bud break, steady flowering, even fruit set, and a lengthy stretch of warm days and cool and often foggy nights during the long summer months. Late and light rains held off until Napa Valley's treasured wine grapes found optimal ripeness, bringing exceptional quality to the crush pad and into the cellar. The abundance of perfectly ripe grapes--with a smooth balance of acids and sugars--provided a broad sweep of opportunities for winemakers to cull only the most select fruit. The vineyards of Napa Valley are intentionally farmed at lower yields bringing only the very best grape to harvest. Growers here, year-in and year-out, bring an average of 4 tons per acre to crush overall, which is consistently half the California state-wide average. This is one of the many reasons that Napa Valley wines are so consistent vintage-to-vintage and acclaimed for their high quality in the bottle. This vintage, while as much as 30% higher than the past two years' smaller crops, is on par with near-normal quantity.

Stay tuned as the fruit, now juice on its careful and intricate way toward wine, develops in the cellar. We can't wait to see how the flavors of the 2012 Napa Valley harvest reveal themselves.

Challenging year in the vineyard reaps rewards in the cellar

What began with a wet winter and spring continued with rainfall into mid-June that delayed bloom and disrupted fruit set resulting in shatter in parts of the region set the stage for a long, cooler-than-average growing season with a later-than-average harvest beset with autumn rain storms. The precipitation measuring season ending on June 30 found the region more than a third above normal in rainfall. While this is good news for water resources, the cloud cover and cool temperatures delayed vine development by several weeks at the onset of the growing season. This timetable continued through the somewhat cool summer season where harvest for the first varieties for sparkling wines found the latest harvest start in anyone's memory, beginning August 29. Few high heat events occurred at any point this year, but growers managed more open vine canopies to ensure sunlight, warmth and good air circulation around the grape clusters. The shatter resulting from the rain events in June was variable by vineyard location hitting some locations harder with projected crop diminished by more than 30% while leaving other sites nearly untouched with near-normal crop.

After a consistently cool summer season, significant mid-October rain pushed the vintage even later. But growers were rewarded with weeks of fantastic weather, a prolonged Indian summer that provided needed ripening time.

Most waited through the first two rains of this year to pick Chardonnay in October, and that patience paid off. Yields were generally consistent with 2010 — down by 10%. Quality looks very good with lower alcohols, good structure and length on the palate.

Most agreed that Merlot was a success story for 2011. While it can tended to be on the greener side, the cool weather helped the vines work more efficiently and produced a beautiful vintage of this varietal with black cherry and plum, not any pruney character.

Mold, rot, and botrytis were challenges to the grapes that were not harvested, and had a major impact on the quantity of the harvest, but not the quality. The commitment to quality runs so deep and strong in this valley that systems for effective sorting were already setup, both in the field and at the wineries. While quantity was low, the fruit this year will make for well-balanced wines with good intensity, structure and texture with a brightness of flavor.

Mother Nature throws wild pitches

In some years, grapegrowers feel like baseball players in the batting cage, swinging at whatever Mother Nature throws their way. In 2010, rainfall returned after three dry years, pushing bud break, flowering and fruit-set back. Summer's cooler temperatures resulted in a later-than-average veraison. Then a two-day heat spike coincided with harvest's first day on August 24. With canopies thinned to adjust for the cooler season, grapes at various sites experienced some sunburn. Although the season's swings resulted in a late and shortened harvest with lower yields, vintners were excited about what they were tasting from the vineyards—concentrated flavors that will hit elegant, structured wines out of the park.

A breath of frost-free relief

From 30 days of intense frost in spring 2008 to fewer than five in 2009, this vintage was much less eventful for growers who were able to sleep nights not worrying about the threat of frost—or the lack of water to combat it. Late spring rains and June's warm spell helped curtail excessive canopy development. Instead of a typical growing season's 14 days of 100°+ temperatures, 2009 counted four or five overall, again reducing the demand for water.

Though rainfall was about two-thirds of normal for the third year in a row, the timing of it was on the vines' side. Couple that with the lack of frost and the mild, relatively cool growing season, Mother Nature gave vines and grapes the best scenario possible.

Crazy weather creates perfect storm in vineyards

The New Year began with intense storms which quickly waned; for the second year in a row, Napa Valley received about 60% of normal rainfall. One of the driest springs on record prompted vines to push out early, providing the "perfect storm" for frigid, dry air to create the deepest and longest frost period in decades, threatening the budding vines.

Spring daytime temps were perfect, yet the frost persisted. Then, within the same week that many had been irrigating for frost protection, vineyards had to be irrigated to forestall a multi-day heat spike just when vines were beginning to flower, a time when fruit and vine development is particularly susceptible to extremes. This resulted in fewer clusters with smaller berries.

Harvest began in mid-August, then a Labor Day heat spell ratcheted everyone into high gear as several varieties ripened simultaneously. Cellar crews worked around the clock to crush the fruit that was coming in all at once--Sauvignon Blanc and Merlot virtually one atop the other.

Suddenly, temps dropped to well below normal, allowing red varieties to receive optimal hang time, excellent ripening and balanced structure.

2007

A vintage of contrasts

The 2007 vintage contrasted with previous vintages and with early predictions—yet grapegrowers brilliantly adapted to changing conditions. The year began dry with a warmer-than-normal winter that continued into spring, resulting in earlier budding, bloom and set. A mild-to-cool summer finished with a Labor Day heat spike that added the boost of sugar development that fruit needed to complement the excellent acid structure developed in the white varieties. Harvest started in early to mid-August. Unseasonably cool weather and nearly an inch of rain in the second week of October did not affect the crops as Indian Summer returned with warm, clear days and vineyard crews sprang into action to finish harvest for a vintage of exceptional quality.

Rain, rain go away

The 2006 harvest finished in early November and will go down as a "grower's year" as Napa Valley faced a variety of challenges from New Year flooding to spring's continued wet weather that delayed budbreak. By early June, the sun came out and vines began to bloom and set fruit. In mid-July a record-setting 10-day heat wave struck, but canopies had not yet been thinned and young clusters were shaded from the hot sun. August's cooler weather continued throughout harvest, allowing for moderately paced and deliberate ripening and a long harvest period. Rain came in the first week of October, but the white varieties were in and the black varieties were not damaged.

Indian summer creates a signature vintage

2005's winter rains took pause for a dry, mild March, then began again with record-setting precipitation late into the growing season, delaying bloom and set. The summer months were cool and pleasant with few heat spikes. Fog and cool temperatures were a concern heading into September as sugar levels were yet to rise in all varieties. Warm, nearly perfect conditions arrived with an Indian Summer making for a later-than-average harvest, providing winemakers with fruit with extended hang and ultimately realizing excellent sugar development and balanced acids with a larger-than-average crop of what could be a signature vintage from Napa Valley.

2004

Early bud break led to one of the earliest harvests in memory

In 2004, bud break occurred earlier than many vintners could remember and the trend carried forward throughout the growing season. Heat spikes happened in June and at scattered intervals throughout the summer season. Grapes completed veraison early and ripeness with well-developed sugars in all varieties was realized early. Growers held on as acid balance eventually caught up. Temperatures were steady into one of the earliest harvests in Napa Valley. Grape quality was very good with a crop that was smaller than average.

2010 Cabernet Sauvignon

Magnums Napa Valley 6 bottles Available in 1.51

The long, cool season and small crop in 2010 yielded a wine of uncommon concentration. Rainfall returned after three years of drought, pushing bud break, flowering and fruit-set back by at least two weeks. The summer brought cooler-than-normal temperatures so the lag extended into the ripening season.

The cool growing season continued until warm weather in late September and October brought the grapes to full ripeness. Upon release in 2013, dark, brooding flavors of berries and cassis danced with dusty minerality, baking spices and violet perfume. With almost 10 years in the bottle, this wine is singing!

2013 Cabernet Sauvignon

Oakville 12 bottles Available in 750ml

The Cabernet Sauvignon offering from our Oakville estate is dazzling in its purity, depth, concentration and balance. The intensity of this vintage shows immediately in the wine, with its black-purple hue and notable viscosity. The fruit arrived at the winery in pristine condition, a relatively light crop of small, flavor-packed berries.

In 2013, it did not take long for us to feel the power and structure of the vintage. The resulting wine went directly to barrels, where it aged for 22 months, before being bottled without fining or filtration.

The final blend - Cabernet Sauvignon, Cabernet Franc and Petit Verdot - is phenomenally dark in color, and while it is rich in tannin and extract, the texture is silky, polished and long. The wine is showing notes of mocha, cassis, black cherry, clay and smoke. On the palate the fruit and spices are very generous and these flavors crescendo on the finish, with ample acidity helping lengthen the impression. It is a classic vintage.

The 2009 vintage is one of depth and power. A dry season with cool nights and glorious summer days produced a wine with significant concentration and grip. Small berry size resulted in intense color and layers of enticing flavor signaling a vintage worthy of aging.

Lavender, balsamic, dried cranberries, rose petal and black tea jump out of the glass.

In January 2022, the Gallica team had a chance to revisit this vintage at our blind retrospective tasting. Forward and inviting. Still quite muscular with suggestions of Asian spice and white soy. We fermented the grapes using only yeasts that naturally occur on the grapes and allowed the wine to gain flavors and color from extended skin contact. Each lot is aged separately for several months, and then blended to create a wine that is more complex than the individual parts.

After blending, the wine spent another year and a half in barrel to completely harmonize before bottling. This is an elegant wine with rich aromas of black berries, black licorice and a hint of cocoa powder. Velvety smooth, it's the perfect partner with grilled steak, rack of lamb or roasted duck.

2013 Cabernet Sauvignon Sacrashe Rutherford 12 bottles Available in 750ml

HALL

Ensconced by 100-year-old oaks, manzanita and pines, the Sacrashe Vineyard is composed of distinctive volcanic ash soils (tuff). An undulating topography creates numerous microclimates and slope grades. The Rutherford hilltop terroir creates difficult growing conditions and limits the vigor and yield of each vine, resulting in harvests of not more than three tons per acre.

HALL's small-vine farming practices further limit the yield such that each vine produces less than four pounds of fruit each year. Rutherford berries are small and concentrated with intense flavors and tannins. The wines are exceptionally rich, expansive and massively structured. The concentrated fruit maintains a focused clarity and the fine-grained tannins create a balanced frame.

Harlan Estate

2010 Red Table Wine The Maiden Napa Valley 12 bottles Available in 750ml

Each year, a number of outstanding components come heartbreakingly close to inclusion in the final, rigorous selection for Harlan Estate. From these barrels, we weave together the finest elements to produce a second wine from the property, The Maiden. While it is remarkably faithful to the vineyard's pedigree and the underlying character of the first wine, The Maiden possesses merits all its own.

As we find ourselves opening slightly older vintages, like the 2010 The Maiden, we are gaining a deeper appreciation of how gracefully the wines are evolving. As the fruit starts to recede a bit and yields to secondary notes and savory flavors, the wine expresses the land in a more dramatic and complex way. There is an intriguing delicacy that emerges, engaging the intellect as well as evoking emotions. The power and precision of its youth has started to become finessed while keeping its energy and freshness.

2005 Chardonnay

Estate Spring Mountain District 12 bottles Available in 750ml

High-elevation mountain Chardonnay is a rarity in today's Napa Valley. Dry farming is also less common in high-elevation, rocky well-drained soils.

Fruit for this wine was sourced from a single high-elevation estate vineyard that has been dry farmed for more than 20 years.

The wine was also made in the "original" Napa Chardonnay style. When we began making Chardonnay in the 1970s, almost everybody made Chardonnay with no malolactic fermentation and barrel fermented in mostly "experienced" French oak. This wine has a liveliness still at this age that is impossible to miss.

The 2013 Llamas Family Cabernet Sauvignon is our inaugural release from a single block within the famed Stagecoach Vineyard. The characteristic red volcanic loam soils pair with southwestern-facing slopes and heat-tempering marine breezes from San Pablo Bay to create a unique terroir utterly suited to ripening Cabernet Sauvignon.

We harvested our Cabernet Sauvignon from Pritchard Hill Block I2B on September 9 while the fruit was optimally balanced between ripeness, phenolic and flavor development. Once in the winery, the fruit was sorted, de-stemmed and cold-soaked for 24 hours before undergoing native-yeast fermentation.

The wine was then aged in French oak (75% new) for 20 months.

The fruit for this wine was handpicked from the heart of the Rutherford nested appellation, originally planted by Mrs. Thomas Rutherford in 1895. In the years following, Georges de Latour purchased the vineyard and named it Beaulieu Vineyard No. 3.

Driven by the desire to make fruit-forward, approachable Cabernet Sauvignon, the Rutherford grapes are the backbone of our wine, and are then accentuated by commingling two vastly different yeast strains under cooler fermentation conditions. The wine is pressed and racked into 100% new French and American oak barrels of various toasting profiles, which complement the Cabernet Sauvignon characteristics during malolactic fermentation. After 24 months aging, we select the finest lots for our final blend prior to bottling.

Intense, full-bodied and ripe, with low acidity and sweet tannins, this wine has seemingly hit full maturity, where it should last for at least another decade."

Another review came in at 93+ points: "Lovely lift to the aromas of crushed blueberry, boysenberry, licorice, menthol and mint. Densely packed and thick, conveying a glyceral texture and a slightly saline quality to its primary dark berry fruit flavors. This wine has terrific energy, spine and length and should ultimately merit an even higher rating. And its high alcohol is well-buffered. The drinking window is from 2022 to 2039."

2012 Cabernet Sauvignon

Napa Valley 12 bottles Available in 750ml

The 2012 Somerston Cabernet Sauvignon was the fifth release of this wine and is intended to be a collector's wine. Somerston wines showcase the property's potential and are selected from specific blocks of our 1,682-acre estate, high in the eastern hills of Napa Valley.

This estate-bottled wine was sourced from two of our best hillside vineyard blocks, Block 30 and Block 23, with an average elevation of 1,250 feet. The aromas of our 2012 vintage are bright and explosive, yet continue to develop in the glass. This wine is exceptionally balanced and has excellent structure, supported by bright acidity.

2012 Cabernet Sauvignon Napa Valley 12 bottles

Available in 750ml

Somnium

Our estate vineyard did not begin to bear fruit until 2013, so for our 2012 vintage, we sourced fruit from the storied Stagecoach Vineyard on Atlas Peak.

Conveniently, our row at Stagecoach was right next to our winemaker's, and we benefited from his watchful eye and experience with the site.

Crushed blackberry aromas meld with cola, caramel and petrichor on the nose. The palate expands into a densely fruited mouthful of boysenberries and dried blueberries, lifted by wild cherry energy. Fresh and medium-bodied, the wine delivers an extended milk-chocolate finish, layered with mixed berries and sweet spice.

Aromas of dried herbs, Kalamata olives and wet stones bring savory elements to this lively wine.

2005 Red Table Wine

Elivette Spring Mountain District 12 bottles Available in 750ml

Elivette is our finest classic red blend.

This wine shows a rich depth of color and features aromas of spices and a concentrated candied fruit layer with raspberry, cherry, cassis and currant. Finely integrated oak aromas marry and intertwine with the fruit to add complexity and depth. The wine is full and rich on the attack with dense coated tannins.

Darker flavors of cocoa and espresso emerge to add even greater variety to the experience. As the wine opens, more and more intriguing elements unfold like hints of anise, toasted almonds, raspberry jam and a mineral earthiness. The mid-palate is weighty and chewy. The finish is long and complex.

Stag's Leap Wine Cellars

S.L.V. Estate Grown Stags Leap District 12 bottles Available in 750ml

S.L.V., also known as Stag's Leap Vineyards, is the winery's first vineyard. Planted in 1970, this vineyard achieved international fame when three-year-old vines from the 1973 harvest produced a wine that stunned the wine world when it bested some of France's greatest wines in a 1976 blind tasting known as the "Judgment of Paris."

The 2012 vintage was a textbook one for the Napa Valley, producing exceptional fruit. The 2012 S.L.V. Cabernet Sauvignon offers intriguing aromas of cocoa powder, wild blackberries and currants.

The wine has a plush entry that fills the mouth with dark blueberry and wild berry flavors along with hints of spice. The palate is rich and concentrated with big, yet round, tannins that lead to a lingering finish of black currant with hints of sweet oak. The wine's structured tannins, rich fruit and pleasing minerality point to this wine's ability to age.

Stewart Cellars

2011 Cabernet Sauvignon

Napa Valley 12 bottles Available in 750ml

This is a plump Napa Valley Cabernet Sauvignon that through acute attention in the vineyard, careful craftsmanship in the winery and meticulous assembly in the finishing, has avoided the pitfalls of the difficult Napa Valley vintage year of 2011.

There is no hint of that cool, damp summer in the big, warm aroma of dark berries with smoky overtones. Its dark purple color forecasts the density of structure with plush, round tannins extracted from nicely ripened fruit.

Dark berries and plums, a bit of smoke and spice from the best French oak and an overall brooding richness of deep, dark flavors extend from entry to the long finish.

Stony Hill Vineyard

2007 Chardonnay

Spring Mountain District 12 bottles Available in 750ml

Our 2007 estate Chardonnay calls to mind a complex blend of fruit flavors with a notable mineral component from the depths of the soil.

These are Old World qualities you would expect to find in Burgundian whites, and yet they also describe the classic Stony Hill style with hints of green apple, honeydew melon and peaches on the nose and at the first sip.

A flinty note follows from our Spring Mountain District nested appellation terroir. This is a rich, multi-dimensional wine, very aromatic, with notable acidity and low pH. It offers a dynamic mouthfeel, subtle power and a long finish.

2004 Cabernet Sauvignon

THE GRADE Cabernet Sauvignon Calistoga 12 bottles Available in 750ml

THE GRADE Cellars

This beautiful 2004 estate Cabernet is as precocious as the day of its bottling "its dark purply pigments still stain the glass while colorful aromatics of black cherry, white chocolate and brown sugar still envelope the senses". As Robert Parker then told us, our Calistoga Cabernets were as comparably earthy as those of Saint-Estéphe. Released at a private reception at PJ Clarke's in NYC in 2008, this first vintage of THE GRADE was a success. Its soft tannins, luscious acidity, natural sucrosity and overall Napa terroir are in perfect balance, allowing this wine to mature gracefully over its 18 years.

The Mascot

2010 Cabernet Sauvignon

Napa Valley 12 bottles Available in 750ml

The Mascot is a Napa Valley Cabernet Sauvignon made from distinct hillside vineyards: specifically, the younger vines of Harlan Estate, BOND and Promontory.

It began as a small, informal project shared among the family, the winemaking team and a handful of close friends. Drawing fruit from recently replanted blocks within the vineyards, The Mascot reveals its distinguished pedigree while sharing a glimpse into the evolution of its parent properties: a youthful snapshot of their future.

Tierra Roja Vineyards

2004 Cabernet Sauvignon

Oakville 12 bottles Available in 750ml

Vintner Linda Neal fondly recalls the origin of this wine.

"When people ask me which is my favorite vintage, I always answer 2004. It was the first wine of 100% Tierra Roja grapes to be introduced to the world, and my first transition from grower to vintner," she said.

First previewed at the Taste of Oakville in 2008, Linda said it was a huge hit with the trade and later with consumers.

"I even received two 'will you marry me' offers, when they took that first sip. After 18 years it is still elegant and powerful at the same time. A rare treat from my personal cellar."

VinRoc

2013 Cabernet Sauvignon Atlas Peak 12 bottles Available in 750ml

2009 Cabernet Sauvignon

Young Inglewood Vineyards

Estate St. Helena 12 bottles Available in 750ml

Still youthful in appearance, the finished wine shows a beautiful nose of blue, red and black fruits, warm spices and an indulgent cocoa powder character presented by the small percent of Cabernet Franc included. The palate offers up layers of the red, blue and black fruits, tea leaves and minerals. Warm spice and a round mouthfeel come from the new oak barrels, selected by Young Inglewood to showcase the fruit's character and mid-palate. The balance of tannin, acidity and good length indicate structure in the wine and the scaffolding for continued aging.

Long Meadow Ranch Winery

2008 Cabernet Sauvignon

6 bottles Napa Valley 6 bottles Available in 1.5I

This vintage expresses the full potential of the early growing season and beautiful fruit maturity. The nose has layers of forward fruit (blackberries, black cherries and dried plums), varietal earthiness (anise, black tea, dried briar patch), and well integrated oak (cedar, vanilla and milk chocolate). Approachable from the first sip, the smooth, rich tannins lend structure and length to the persistent, fruit. Last impressions of clean, mouthwatering fruit linger without any infringement from excess alcohol, overripe prune/raisin or overpowering tannins. 86% Cabernet Sauvignon, 11% Merlot, 3% Cabernet Franc

2008 Cabernet Sauvignon

Napa Valley 12 bottles Available in 750ml

Our Vintage 2008 commemorated 10 years of handcrafting premium Napa Valley Cabernet Sauvignon. A lengthy frost season decreased yields dramatically, and as low yields usually equal high quality, Vintage 2008 turned out to be exceptional. Following a cool, dry spring was consistent summer sunshine with evenly moderate temperatures that allowed the small crop to cruise to optimum ripeness. These maturity levels, coupled with the high skin-to-juice ratios of the small berries, resulted in fruit containing excellent concentration of dark berry flavors, ripe and round fleshy tannin and deep, dark pigment. Your wine spent 20 months aging in 80% new French oak barrels, rounding out the palate even further, while adding more texture, aroma and flavor components. Expect to find deep aromas of cassis, blackberry, dark chocolate, caramelized oak, toffee and the Buoncristiani signatures of balance, depth on the mid-palate and a lengthy, persistent finish.
